Because we practice quality standards and GMP, we can only accept unopened products (of those products that are sealed for safety) for returns or exchange. All other products that do not contain a safety seal are non-refundable except in the case that there has been an error on our part during the manufacturing process. Return postage will be reimbursed in case of damaged, defective or incorrectly sent items and a reimbursement will be issued in the original form of payment. In the unfortunate event that a customer react to a product, we will give you the option of exchanging or refunding it.

If a product is damaged during shipping, you must file a damage claim with the shipper as we do not insure shipments without special request. Refused orders are subject to full shipping charges.

Only items purchased on the The Wild Folk website can be returned to www.thewildfolk.ca for refund or exchange within 10 days of original purchase. Items purchased from our stockists must be returned to their original point of purchase.

Above all, we want you to love our products as much as we do! If you have any questions or concerns regarding an order please email us at: hello@thewildfolk.ca.
